

Mines-Ponts #11. Spelling mistakes

- in only one word: another, cannot, moreover, although
- 2 Hs: whether
- no double p: developed, developing
- no double n: personal, personally (one –N and double L)
- double l: legally, illegally, personally
- no double l: harmful, plentiful, the scale
- no double s: advertisement
- no double m: consumers
- Mind the spelling of: for exAmple / for instAnces (with an –A), particulARly / especially, gOvernment(s) (no –U), responsibilty (no –A), a mEASURE, to intervene, a compaNy, vaccines

2. Vocab mistakesMind your register!

- ~~way~~ more, ~~way~~ less → much more, much less
- ~~gonna~~ → going to
- Also: not to start a sentence ~~Also~~ → Moreover, Besides

NPC:

- to adviSe (Vb) ≠ a piece of adviCe (Noun)
- to sell (Vb) ≠ the sale of (Noun)
- to produce (Vb) ≠ a product (Noun)
- to subsidize (Vb) ≠ a subsidy (Noun): subventionner, une subvention
- to raise (Vb) ≠ a rise (Noun)
 - to raise people's awareness: sensibiliser le public
- other (Adj) ≠ other (pronoun) : other people / Ø others Ø
- a citizen: un citoyen ≠ Ø citizenship: la citoyenneté
- economical (an economical car) ≠ economical (an economic measure)
- to live (habiter) ≠ to leave (partir)
 - to lead a life (mener une vie)

Mind your prepositions and constructions:

- d'une part / d'autre part: ON THE one hand / ON THE other hand
- dépendre de qqch/qq'un: to depend ON something / someone
- à première vue: AT first sight
- se retourner contre qq'un : to backfire ON someone
- en résumé: to put IT in a nutshell

Mind those barbarisms

- la consommation: consUMPTION
- un phénomène: a phenomenON
- être obligatoire : to be mandatory
- l'alimentation: one's diet
- la contrebande: smuggling
- le marché noir: the black market
- fermer les yeux sur qq chose : to turn a blind eye to something
- être sous surveillance : to be under scrutiny
- dans de telles circonstances : in such circumstances
- c'est à ... de faire ceci ou cela : it is up to ... to do this or that
- c'est une situation de gagnant gagnant: it is a win-win situation
- stimuler l'économie : to ~~raise~~ boost the economy
- faire la une: to hit the headlines
- cela fait plus de mal que de bien: it causes more harm than good

- est-ce une bonne ou une mauvaise chose : is it a boon or a bane ?
- être touché par (un problème) : to be ~~touched~~ affected by a problem

3. Grammar mistakes

- Adjectives: no -S in English!
- to speak in general: use the plural (without article)

Mind your articles:

- THE US, THE UK ≠ Ø GB
- Ø society
- THE is compulsory when followed by a complement: THE implications OF the problem
- no THE when speaking in general. Use the plural without article: ~~the~~ e-cigarette → Ø e-cigaretteS, Ø tobacco smokerS

NPC: the comparative and the superlative (with THE): it is worse than (comparative) - THE worst (superlative)

Mind your irregular plurals:

- a child (sing) → children (plur)
- a man (sing) → men (plur)
- a woman (sing) → women (plur)
- a person (sing, une personne) → Ø people (plur, des gens)
- a people (sing, un people) → several peoples (plur, plusieurs peuples)
- a life (sing) → lives (plur)
- a medium (sing) → media (plur)

Mind your accountables:

- researches → scientific research + 3rd person
- wastes → waste + 3rd person

Mind your constructions:

- instead of + V-ing
- with / without + V-ing
- let it + B Vbale: let it be !
- to listen TO someone
- every + N singular
- each + N singular
- a lot of + N plural
- other + N plural
- different + N plural
- Y → ies: a countrY → countriES
- it isn't EITHER
- everyone putS THEIR hatS on their headS

NPC: few ≠ less

Few + accountable → few students

Less + unaccountable → less money

Special translations:

- Translation of “comme”: NPC: like and as: like + Noun/Pronoun ≠ as + Verbal form
e.g.: Like John/ him, I believe....
e.g.: As John said, ...

- Translation of “pour”: to + Verb ≠ for + Noun/Pronoun

e.g.: it is for John /him

e.g.: it is to help him